

2020 ELECTION GUIDE

General Election

Early Voting: Oct. 19–Nov. 2, 2020 | General Election Day: Nov. 3, 2020

Cornerstone is pleased to provide this voter's guide to the 2020 general election. The purpose of this guide is not to influence voting but rather to provide information that will assist with research prior to voting. This guide covers the Arkansas Congressional Delegation, the state Senate and the state House of Representatives. Statewide offices are not up for re-election in 2020.

The candidate lists show candidates from the major parties, Republican and Democrat. Full ballot information is available from your county elections office.

CONGRESS

One U.S. Senate seat, held by Tom Cotton (R), is up for re-election.

Arkansas has four seats in the U. S. House of Representatives; all are Republican, and all are up for re-election, with two of candidates having opponents from a major party.

ARKANSAS SENATE

The Arkansas Senate has 35 members. In 2020, 17 of the 35 senators are up for re-election:

- 13 Republicans, 3 Democrats, 1 open seat
- 9 incumbents have no opponent or no opponent from a major party

ARKANSAS HOUSE

The 100-seat Arkansas House of Representatives has 65 Republicans and 23 Democrats. All seats are up for re-election. Over half of the candidates have no opponent from a major party.

- 12 members did not seek re-election.
- 61 do not face an opponent from a major party

KEY DATES

- Last day to request absentee ballot: Oct. 27
- Early voting: Oct. 19 – Nov. 2
